

Weddings & Civil Ceremonies

The perfect venue for your perfect day

Congratulations on your forthcoming marriage and thank you for considering Manchester Jewish Museum as the venue for your special day.

Once you have decided who will perform your marriage, we will help you to plan your ceremony in the museum.

Your wedding day is one that you will remember forever. Allow us to ensure that you, your family and your friends enjoy a truly memorable day.

We look forward to assisting you in your arrangements.

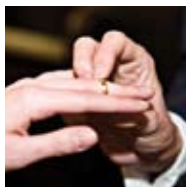

Space for everyone in a space to celebrate

Welcome all of your family and friends to celebrate with you.

For the ceremony, there is enough room to seat up to 100 guests.

For the reception meal, our exhibition room may be available and can provide seating for up to 70 guests.

We also have a superb outdoor garden area easily able to house a marquee and accommodate up to 100 guests.

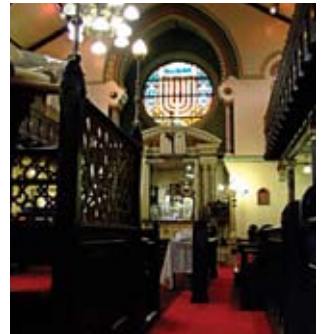

A unique place for memories

Manchester Jewish Museum provides the perfect setting for stylish & sophisticated weddings, civil & naming ceremonies.

Situated on Cheetham Hill Road, housed in an 1874, Grade II* Listed, former Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue. Manchester Jewish Museum is a real hidden architectural and cultural treasure.

Among the stunning Victorian features of the building are vibrant stained glass windows, elegant columns, beautiful woodwork, traditional seating and gallery areas, period lighting and hand detailed Jewish & Moorish decoration & metalwork, which make this building truly memorable.

Ornate surroundings, a warm, welcoming atmosphere and caring, professional staff make us the perfect choice for your day.

The little extras that make a big difference

If required, we can recommend trusted providers for any of the extra touches that will help to make your day extra special.

From floral decoration to photography, if you have an idea please ask.

Free on-street parking is available around the Museum building.
